Over hill, over dale,
Thorough bush, thougrough brier,
Over Park, over pale,
Thorough flood, thougrough fire!

I do wander evrywhere,
Swifter than the moon's sphere
And I serve the Fairy Queen,

To dew her orbs upon the green
The cowslips tall here pensioners be
In their gold coats sports you see
Thouse be rubies, fairy favors
In those freckles live their savours
I must go seek some dewdrops here,

And hang a pearl in every cowslip's ear

I love this passage

Thorough flood, thogrough fire!

Thierry , 2010/01/14 17:06

Is there a Fairy Quenn ?

Administrator , 2010/01/14 17:06

Yes, look here :

And I serve the Fairy Queen,

Mike , 2010/01/14 17:06

Does someone know what mean «dewdrops» in this sentence ?

I must seek some dewdrops here,

Mila , 2010/01/14 17:06

It is the water drops you can find on vegetation on the morning
